

Year 11 May update

What has happened so far?	What is happening now?	What is to come?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information has been shared about the cancellation of summer exams. • All students in year 11 have had a destination interview regarding their plans for September. • Form tutors have been in contact fortnightly to check the well-being of students. • There is no expectation of you to be completing work for any courses that you have been working up to this point. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students should be considering in detail their options for September. • Students should be researching potential courses they would like to study and what this entails. • Fortnightly communication from your form tutor for pastoral care. • Students should be checking their school email account and Microsoft Teams regularly. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The launch of Unifrog in year 11. • Completing a MOOC through Unifrog to add to your CV/personal statement to show independent study. • A bank of resources on the school website separated by subject for students to access to prepare themselves for the transition to Sixth Form in the coming months. • Fortnightly communication from your form tutor for pastoral care.